

Chapter-3 (The Northern and Coastal Plains)

Q:-1) How do the rivers of the northern plains make the land fertile?

Ans.:- The rivers which flow through the northern plains have their origins in the Himalayas. They carry with them broken pieces of rocks, sand and fine silt. They deposit this fine silt, called alluvium along the banks which makes the land fertile.

Q:-2) Write the name of any four monuments that you would like to visit in Delhi .

Ans.:-Four monuments I would like to visit in Delhi are:-

- 1) Red Fort
- 2) Qutab Minar
- 3) India Gate
- 4) Lotus Temple

Q:-3) In to how many parts is the Western Coastal Plain divided? Write their names.

Ans.:-The western Coastal Plain is divided into 3 parts:-

- 1) The Gujarat Coast
- 2) The Konkan Coast
- 3) The Malabar Coast

Q:-4) What are the main occupation of the people living in coastal areas?

Ans.:- Fishing and farming are the main occupations of the people living in coastal areas

Q:-5) Write the names of crops grown in Kerala.

Ans.:-The crops grown in Kerala are rice, coconut, rubber, tea, coffee and spices.