B Tick (✓) the correct option.

1. The Kabuliwala was a patient listener
  - (a) but often snubbed Mini and would stop her prattle.
  - (b) but found it difficult to listen to Mini's stories.
  - (c) and listened to all that Mini would tell him when they spent time together.
  - (d) but could not bear to hear Mini even for a minute.
2. When the Kabuliwala came back from the jail and saw Mini,
  - (a) she was dressed up as a bride and had grown up.
  - (b) she had not changed at all.
  - (c) she ran to him, as she would as a child.
  - (d) she did not recognise him.

A. Answer the following questions:

Ans 1 Mini would ask these questions from her father.

“Father! Ramdayal, the doorkeeper calls a crow a krow! He doesn't know anything, does he?” “What do you think Father? Bhola says there is an elephant in the clouds, blowing water out of his trunk and that is why it rains!” “Father, what relation is mother to you?”

Ans 2

The first thought that Mini had on meeting the Kabuliwala was that in his big bag he carried two or three children like herself. She feared him and stood close to her father's chair. She refused to take nuts and raisins he offered.

Ans 3

Every year, in the month of January, the Kabuliwala would go to his country to meet his own little daughter.

Ans 4

Everyone in Mini's house was busy the day the Kabuliwala came back to meet Mini after being released from jail because it was Mini's wedding day. Preparations for the marriage were going on in full swing. All were busy with the ceremonies.

Ans 5

The Kabuliwala showed Mini's father a small and dirty piece of paper which had an impression of her daughter's little hand smeared in ink. It reminded him of his own daughter.
