Mission: service to the nation

Expectation from him: to take country to greater heights

Our Prime Minister Narendra Damodardas Modi

Narendra Damodardas Modi is my favourite leader. He is the Prime Minister of India. He has all the true qualities of a true leader. He is honest and hardworking. He is very humble. His simplicity connotes him. There is no trace of any pride in him. He is very different from other political leaders. He has no desire for any name, fame or riches. He is faultless and blotless personality. Service to the nation is the only mission of his life. All the Indians hold him in high esteem and expect that he will take the country to greater heights.

2. If one has a real grandmother who has all the good human qualities life becomes bliss. Imagine you have such a grandmother who is still active despite her age. Write a paragraph in about 100 words on your grandmother.

Like all grandmothers, my grandmother is also old. She has wrinkles all over her body. She is seventy years old. Despite it, she is still very active. She has no lethargy or laziness. She gets up early in the morning. She takes a bath and prays before the household goddess. She also reads Holy Scriptures and recites them when she has time in the day. She helps my mother in the kitchen. She does shopping also. She takes me to the bus stand. She also helps me in my studies as she has a vast knowledge of all things. She feeds the sparrows during the afternoon as it is her favourite hobby. I love her very much.
